UPDATE AMAC Foundation

Supporting & Educating America's Seniors

Social Security Myth of the Month:

Inflation Rates and COLA?

There are misconceptions and media rumors of inflation rates and how Cost of Living Adjustments (COLA) is calculated. On the watch for what's to come, recent commentary addressing this topic on the Social Security Report website in "A Viewpoint on the Adequacy of Social Security COLAs." Media rumors are a 10% hike based on COLA, which "... may or may not be realistic." The post refers to an article by The Motley Fool's Stefon Walters, who writes about inflation, its impact on Social Security, and thoughts on how retirees can adjust retirement plans to their benefit.

WELCOME JOLEEN TENINTY

The AMAC Foundation is excited to introduce Joleen Teninty as the new Executive Director of the AMAC Foundation beginning August 15, 2022.

With an extensive array of managerial and professional research experience complementing her recent background in the operation and direction of a major community organization, Joleen steps into the role of AMAC Foundation Executive Director with a clear mission to continue the Foundation's growth in support of America's seniors. Indeed, her wide-ranging understanding of training and development at many levels equips her with the tools needed to advance the Foundation's brand and to continue the organization's development as a substantial, world-class concern.

Also, there are exciting plans for our outgoing Executive Director, Gerry Hafer. As the first executive director, Gerry was instrumental in bringing AMAC founder Daniel Weber's vision of the Foundation to fruition. Gerry will remain on staff to assist with the transition and to offer his expertise in crucial Foundation projects.

Send Gerry Hafer well wishes for his new endeavors!
