AMAC Action’s Senior Vice President Appears on FOX News

AMAC Action Senior Vice President Andy Mangione was a guest on the FOX News program The Next Revolution which was guest-hosted by Tammy Bruce on November 20th. Mangione discussed the looming insolvency of Social Security and AMAC’s Social Security Guarantee which is our plan to stabilize the program and make it solvent for decades. You can watch the appearance here.

AMAC CEO Rebecca Weber Testifies Before Congress on Behalf of America’s Seniors

AMAC’s Chief Executive Officer, Rebecca Weber, testified before Congress at a Senate Special Committee on Aging hearing held in the Villages, Florida on November 21st.

Committee member Senator Rick Scott (FL) invited Ms. Weber to testify on behalf of AMAC’s 2.2 million members regarding how Biden Administration policies impact seniors. Ms. Weber’s testimony included how the looming insolvency of Social Security will influence retirees’ benefits, the effect the Inflation Reduction Act will have on American life expectancy, and the consequences of record-high inflation on seniors’ savings and fixed incomes. You can watch video of the hearing here.

AMAC Action Appeals to Members to Serve in Georgia Runoff Election

It’s been previously documented in this space how AMAC members have stepped up in great numbers to work polls for the primary and midterm elections this year.

Well, there is still a contest pending and it takes place in Georgia as Republican US Senate challenger Herschel Walker faces incumbent Senator Raphael Warnock in a runoff election on December 6th. Since election laws in Georgia permit out-of-state election workers, AMAC Action appealed to members in South Carolina, Alabama, and Florida to join their fellow members in Georgia to become credentialed to work the polls for this important election.

AMAC Members Could Save $475 on average
